

ADAM BROWN

MANAGEMENT CONSULTANT

Adam has 20 years of public sector expertise, particularly in transportation and healthcare projects. He excels in quality management, risk assessment, and project portfolio oversight, guiding clients through complex system transformations and process improvements. Adam's strategic approach, informed by decades of experience, strengthens projects to meet goals and regulatory standards while enhancing efficiency and stakeholder engagement.

EDUCATION AND CERTIFICATIONS

BS | Western Washington University

- Dare to Lead™ Trained, Brené Brown
- ToP® Facilitation Methods
- Engineer in Training (EIT), Washington State

ACCOMPLISHMENTS

- Led crisis response system development in Washington
- Streamlined processes across Oregon modernization initiatives
- Established quality assurance frameworks for Oregon state projects

PROFESSIONAL SUMMARY

17 Years Public Sector Transportation Experience

12 Years Quality Assurance Leadership

14 Years Risk Mitigation Strategy Development

RECENT WORK EXPERIENCE

PROJECTS

- Washington 988 Implementation Quality Assurance Project
- Oregon Workers' Compensation Division Modernization Program Project
- Oregon Toll System Implementation Project

SKILLS SUMMARY

- Quality management processes
- Strategic risk mitigation
- Project portfolio oversight
- Stakeholder engagement facilitation