

LINDSAY NORDENBERG

CHILD WELFARE INDUSTRY DIRECTOR

Lindsay is a seasoned professional with over 14 years of expertise in child welfare, project management, and strategic planning. Known for her leadership in implementing innovative solutions and facilitating change, she delivers impactful results in training redesign, policy alignment, and data-driven decision-making. Lindsay fosters sustainable improvements for state agencies and communities.

EDUCATION AND CERTIFICATIONS

MSW | University of Wisconsin

- Certified Social Worker, Wisconsin Department of Safety and Professional Services
- Dare to Lead™ Trained, Brené Brown
- ToP® Facilitation Methods
- Butler Foundations of Coaching

ACCOMPLISHMENTS

- Led statewide programs in Wisconsin focusing on trauma-informed care and equitable policies
- Redesigned North Carolina’s training systems and practice models
- Expanded treatment foster care capacity in Missouri

PROFESSIONAL SUMMARY

14 Years Child Welfare Expertise

14 Years Strategic Planning

11 Years Project Management

RECENT WORK EXPERIENCE

PROJECTS

- North Carolina Child Welfare Transformation and Pre-Service Training Redesign Project
- Wisconsin Lived Experience Advancing a Diverse and Equitable Response and Support in Child Welfare Program

SKILLS SUMMARY

- Strategic planning and execution
- Change management leadership
- Training development and facilitation
- Data-driven decision-making